

FoxPay Privacy Policy

Last Updated: May 2, 2025

This Privacy Policy (this “Privacy Policy”) describes how Enhanced Foods, LLC, which sells the FoxPay system, and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the “Company” “we” “us” and/or “our”) collects and manages your personal information when you visit our website or use our services.

1. Scope. This Privacy Policy primarily covers (a) Merchants: businesses that have expressed interest in using the Services or have contracted with us to provide the Services within their restaurants (where this term is used in this Privacy Policy in the context of the processing of the personal information of a Merchant, it refers to a Merchant that is an individual); (b) Merchant Employees: employees of our Merchants that use the Services; (c) Guests: individuals that use the Services at one of our Merchant’s restaurants, through a business partner or directly; and (d) individuals that visit our websites (referred to generally as our “Websites”) and our third-party business partners. We may also process information from other individuals for additional purposes that might be separately collected from time to time but are covered as part of this Privacy Policy.

Please note that our Merchants are independent third parties that maintain their own business practices and policies outside of their relationship with the Company and their use of the Services. As a result, unless provided otherwise in this Privacy Policy, we are not responsible for the privacy policies or data practices of our Merchants, who may maintain separate policies and practices. If you are a Merchant Employee, your employer is responsible for providing any additional required notices or information to you regarding its privacy practices outside of this Privacy Policy.

By using the Services and/or providing us with your personal information, you acknowledge that your personal information will be processed and used in the manner set out in this Privacy Policy.

2. Definitions. The following terms used in this Privacy Policy are defined as follows:

- a. “Payroll and Team Management” refers to a module offered as part of the Services directed to Merchant Employees that includes a number of HR-focused services, including, but not limited to, payroll, benefits administration, card services, scheduling and applicant tracking services.
- b. “Services” refers to services and products (including both hardware and software) developed or administered by us from time-to-time, including:
 - i. our point-of-sale (POS) system;
 - ii. payment processing services;
 - iii. our application programming interfaces (“APIs”);
 - iv. associated modules provided as part of our POS system, such as our loyalty, marketing, waitlist and reservations, delivery and Payroll and Team Management modules;
 - v. other restaurant management services, such as our inventory, invoicing and Bill Pay services;
 - vi. our digital ordering services, such as online ordering, pickup and delivery services, contactless order and pay at the table functionality, gift cards and our mobile application(s);
 - vii. accounts created through our digital ordering services (“Digital Ordering Account(s)”); and
 - viii. other mobile application(s) developed as part of the Services(collectively referred to as the “Services”). Please note that certain Services may be facilitated through our Websites or through our third-party business partners.

- c. “You” and/or “your” is a Merchant, a Merchant Employee, a Guest, a visitor to one of our Websites or other covered data subject.

3. Personal information we collect. The personal information we collect depends how you use the Services and our Websites. While some information is collected automatically, most is collected when you use our Services or our Websites.

Personal information collected through the Services

A. Merchants. If you are a Merchant and sign up to use our Services, we will collect personal information from you in connection with your service agreement and use (or prospective use) of the Services, including, as applicable:

- your name;
- address;
- email;
- date of birth;
- phone number; and
- Information you choose to share when using the Services such as when you are communicating through mobile applications or in support tickets.

As part of our application process and agreement to provide the Services, we may also collect additional information, such as your tax identification number, your drivers’ license details as well as your banking and payment card information.

B. Merchant Employees. If you are a Merchant Employee, we collect personal information about you through your use of the Services. This includes:

- your name;
- email;
- phone number;
- employee identification number;
- address;
- date of birth; and
- information relating to your role, such as your job title, wage rates and salary and hours worked.

To the extent you are employed by a Merchant that uses the Payroll and Team Management module, we may also collect:

- your Social Security number;
- banking information as part of payroll;
- your professional and educational history;
- tax documentation such as your W2 and 1095 tax forms;
- your benefit elections;
- driver’s license information;
- gender;
- marital status;
- disability status;
- ethnicity; and
- your dependent and beneficiary information.

Please note that the actual personal information collected will depend on the specific Payroll and Team Management services that you or your employer has elected to use. Please contact your employer for additional information.

C. Guests. We collect information from you through your use of the Services (as provided and developed by us from time to time), which may include collecting and/or receiving your personal information when you place an order with, make a purchase from (including gift cards), or otherwise complete a transaction with our Merchants or participate in their respective loyalty programs.

Depending on which Service(s) you have used, personal information collected may include:

- your name;
- contact details such as your phone number and email;
- your address and other general location details;
- your payment card information, such as the brand, card number, security code and expiration date;
- transaction information and order history details (e.g., goods/services ordered, date, payment method and amount of payment);
- your date of birth (if you choose to provide it);
- account and profile information such as your username and password;
- if you are a member of a Merchant's loyalty program, information in relation to your points balance and redemptions;
- waitlist or reservation details, including dining preferences, special requests and dietary restrictions; and
- your feedback in relation to your experience at our Merchants' establishments (if you choose to provide it).
- Information you choose to share when using the Services

In all cases, the actual personal information collected will vary depending on the Services being used. Depending on the Services being used, personal information may also be linked to your use of the Services across our platforms.

Merchants may also elect to collect dietary and allergy-related information as part of the Services. To the extent a Guest elects to provide information pertaining to their dietary requirements as part of a reservation or their dining experience that may be found to constitute health or medical-related information under the applicable law, that individual is consenting to having that information used as part of that experience and the Service. In these cases, we process this information to provide the Services to the Merchant.

Personal information collected through our Websites

In addition to using the Services, we may also collect personal information when you visit our Websites and request information about our Services, schedule a product demo, or subscribe to our media channels (e.g., blogs, podcasts, etc.). This personal information may include:

- your name;
- email; and
- phone number.

Certain information may also be collected automatically when you visit our Websites. For more information, please see the section of this Privacy Policy entitled "Information collected automatically."

Personal information collected from other sources

Depending on whether you are a Merchant, a Merchant Employee, a Guest or a visitor to one of our Websites, we may also collect personal information about you from third parties including our business partners, data providers, identity verification services, credit bureaus (if applicable), banks and other financial institutions and credit card companies. We may also collect information from you that is publicly available. For example, if you interact with us or share your information through various social media channels.

Information collected automatically

We collect information automatically when you visit our Websites, use our mobile application(s), complete a transaction, or use our online services. For transactions, this may include personal information such as your name when a payment card is used. Information collected automatically by cookies, web beacons or other similar technologies (described in the “Cookies and other tracking technologies” section of this Privacy Policy) may include:

- information about your device, such as your device type/model, number and device ID (e.g., MAC address);
- information about your browser, settings (e.g., language) and operating system;
- your internet protocol (IP) address (including, in some instances, your perceived location);
- unique advertising and related identifiers;
- transactional and purchase information; and
- browsing and usage activity, such as the referring domain, what websites/content you have viewed or actions you have taken on a particular website.

Depending on the Services being used or the Websites you access, we may also collect geolocation information through your devices. This information may be collected via GPS, Bluetooth, cellular or WiFi technologies. You can adjust your settings at the device or browser level to disable the use of these technologies.

3. How we use personal information. We use your personal information to provide you with our Services and to manage our business operations. This includes communicating with you as part of those Services as well as for advertising and marketing purposes where permitted under the applicable law or where we have your consent. In all cases, information is used to support our adherence to any legal, compliance or security-related obligations. The actual nature of how we use personal information will depend on the nature of the Services provided to you and may vary depending on if you are a Guest, a Merchant, a Merchant Employee or other covered individual under this Privacy Policy. A more detailed breakdown of how we use personal information can be found below.

We use personal information to:

- Provide, maintain and support our Services, including
 - to provide updates, support and training related to the Services;
 - to determine the eligibility of individuals in relation to their use of certain Services;
 - for contracting and agreement purposes;
 - to process transactions and payments through the Services, maintaining an order history;
 - to enable our Merchants and our Merchants Employees to access and use the Services, including information that you have provided as part of using the Services;
 - to improve, develop, and provide Services, develop, train and deploy algorithms and artificial intelligence (AI) models, used to develop, provide, and personalize our Services, and generate insights to enhance our Services for Merchants and Guests;

- to provide online services, including verifying your identity, as well as diagnosing technical and service issues; and
 - If you are a Merchant employee, to enable our Merchants to manage their workforce
- Manage our business and for internal operational purposes, including
 - analyzing the performance of our Services;
 - workforce and service development;
 - creating and developing analytics for the benefit of our business and the business of our Merchants;
 - research purposes, including the development of new products;
 - assessing the effectiveness of Services; and
 - improving our Services and Websites.
- Personalize your experience, including:
 - creating a Merchant-specific profile based on your interactions across our various Guest-facing Services, including, but not limited to, when you make a payment at one of our Merchant's restaurants, join a waitlist or make a reservation, or join one of our Merchant's loyalty programs. Guest profiles are limited to a specific Merchant or a Merchant management group that you have visited or used as part of the Services.
 - using data associated with your account to personalize your experience across our Services;
 - using transactional data and order history to provide recommendations when using our Services or those of our Merchants;
 - using information about your dining experience (including waitlist and reservation information) to personalize your experience at our Merchant's restaurants (including in relation to your future dining experiences); and
 - using analytics and profiling technology to personalize your experience
- Advertise and market to you, including
 - sending you marketing communications, either directly or through a third-party service provider, in relation to our existing or new Services that we think might interest you; and
 - Based on instructions from our Merchants or our business partners as applicable, either directly or through a third party, to advertise their products and services to you.

Any communications sent to you pursuant to this section shall either be permitted under the applicable law or with your consent. Please see the "Your rights and choices" section of this Privacy Policy for more details on opting out of these communications and updating your preferences.

- Communicate with you or provide information you have requested, including
 - providing notifications in relation to your purchases or the Services;
 - providing you with our newsletters, podcasts and other subscription materials;
 - sending you digital receipts; and
 - responding to feedback that you have provided in relation to our products or Services or those of our Merchants.
- For legal, compliance and security-related purposes, including to
 - comply with our legal obligations, including under anti-money laundering, know-your-customer or similar laws in any relevant jurisdiction;
 - secure and protect our network and systems;
 - identify and protect against fraud and other crimes;
 - establish, exercise or defend legal claims;
 - perform our contractual obligations; and
 - monitor and report compliance issues.

4. How we share personal information. In certain instances, we will share personal information we collect from you or otherwise processes from you in order to provide our Services or fulfill the other purposes within this Privacy Policy. If you are a Guest, this includes sharing personal information with our Merchants and Merchant Employees as well as with third-party partners that are authorized by the Merchant to access your information. We also maintain a number of relationships with third-party service providers as well as business partners that we use to provide, support and improve our Services.

We may share personal information as part of providing the Services and for the purposes described within this Privacy Policy. This includes:

- with our Merchants and our Merchants' Employees for the purposes of providing the Services to you, fulfilling your requests and for the other purposes described in this Privacy Policy. As part of providing the Services (for example, when you complete a transaction at a Merchant's restaurant or through our digital ordering services, join a waitlist or complete a reservation), we will share your order information or details about your reservation with the Merchant. This may include personal details such as your name, contact information as well as information about your dining experience, including reservation details, dining preferences and special requests. In certain cases, where a Merchant is part of a larger management group, this may include sharing that information with other restaurants within that group as part of your future dining experiences;
- with our third-party business partners in order to provide, maintain, improve and expand our Services;
- with third-party integration partners selected by the Merchant or with whom you do business where we are instructed to share your information as part of the Services;
- with our parent, subsidiary, or affiliate companies, agents (if any) for the purposes outlined above;
- with third parties to provide, maintain and improve our Services, including service providers who access information about you to perform services on our behalf or on behalf of our Merchants, such as hosting and information technology services, payment services, identity verification and fraud prevention services, marketing and advertising services, data analytics and personalization services and customer support services. Please note that if you are a Merchant Employee whose employer is using the Payroll and Team Management module, we will share your information with benefits, payroll and other employment-related service providers.
- in connection with, or during the negotiation of, any merger, sale of company stock or assets, financing, acquisition, divestiture or dissolution of all or a portion of our business; or
- if we believe it is authorized or necessary to:
 - protect our rights or property, or the security or integrity of our Services or our Websites;
 - enforce the terms of our terms of service or other applicable agreements or policies;
 - protect us, users of our Services or the public from harm or potentially prohibited or illegal activities;
 - investigate, detect and prevent fraud and security breaches; or
 - comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process or governmental request (including, for example, a court order, subpoena, or search warrant).

We may also share aggregated and/or anonymized information derived from the Services that does not directly identify you, including device information and information derived from cookies and log files with third parties for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

6. Retention of personal information. We retain personal information as long as reasonably necessary to provide the Services, carry out the purposes described in this Privacy Policy or as otherwise required in order to comply with our records retention periods (which reflect the applicable law). For example, we may retain information about users of our Services in order to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations or to protect our interests as part of providing the Services.

7. Cookies and other tracking technologies

The Company and third parties described in this Privacy Policy may use cookies, web beacons and other tracking technologies for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy. We may use these technologies within our Services and across our Websites, for example to:

- to provide our Services (e.g., authentication within the check-out process);
- to uniquely identify you and/or your device;
- to store your preferences as part of providing the Services;
- for personalization, ad measurement and analytics, and targeted advertising purposes (including across your devices and applications);
- for security and fraud-prevention purposes;
- to analyze and monitor the performance of our Services;
- to improve and develop new Services; and
- to understand your use of the Services over time.

Information on how to manage cookies and related technologies within your browser and more generally can be found below along with a more detailed description of how we use these technologies.

A “cookie” is a small text file placed and saved in your browser when you access our Websites and potentially the websites of our Merchants, business partners and other third parties. We use both session cookies (i.e., cookies that are stored only for a specific website visit) and persistent cookies (i.e., cookies that are stored beyond a specific website visit) to provide the Services and for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy. These cookies may be set by us (first-party cookies) or set by third parties that collect information on our behalf (third-party cookies), such as Google Analytics.

There are other tracking technologies, such as web beacons/GIFs, pixels, page tags, embedded scripts, that consist of small transparent image files or other web programming code that record how you interact with websites, mobile applications and services. They are often used in conjunction with web browser cookies or other identifiers associated with your device.

We also use pixels and related technologies as part of session replay services on certain Websites that are used to understand and improve functionality and an individual’s experience on those sites.

In certain instances, we may provide our Merchants with digital advertising and related services that involve the collection and use of cookies, pixels and related technologies via integrations. In these cases, Merchants set up independent accounts with these third parties.

There are ways to control and/or reject the setting of cookies and similar technologies within your browser settings. As each browser is different, please consult the “help” menu within your browser. For additional information about cookies and how to control their use on various browsers and devices, you can visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org>. Please be aware that depending on the Services being used, restricting cookies may prevent you from accessing and using all or part of the Services.

Targeted advertising and your choices

In certain cases, we allow third-party advertising partners to use cookies, web beacons and other tracking technologies on our Websites, mobile applications and within our Services to collect information about you and your activities for interest-based advertising or other targeted content. The information they collect may be associated with your personal information or they may collect information, including personal information, about your online activities over time and across different websites and other online services. This information may be shared with ad networks and other content providers.

If you want to opt out of receiving online interest-based advertisements on your internet browser, please visit and follow the instructions at www.aboutads.info/choices, or <http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices/> to place an opt-out cookie on your device indicating that you do not want to receive interest-based advertisements. Opt-out cookies only work on the specific internet browser and device that they are downloaded onto. If you want to opt out of interest-based advertisements across all your browsers and devices, you will need to opt out on each browser on each device you actively use. If you delete cookies on your device generally, you will need to set the opt-out cookie again on that device. If you want to opt out of receiving online interest-based advertisements on mobile applications, please follow the instructions at <http://www.aboutads.info/appchoices> or by visiting the settings in your mobile device.

Please note that when you opt out of receiving interest-based advertisements, this does not mean you will no longer see advertisements from us or on our online services. It means that the online ads that you do see should not be tailored to your interests. We are not responsible for the effectiveness of, or compliance with, any third-parties' opt-out options or programs or the accuracy of their statements regarding their programs. In addition, third parties may still use cookies to collect information about your use of our online services, including for analytics and fraud prevention purposes.

Do not track

We may use, and we may allow third-party service providers and other third parties to use, cookies or other technologies on our Services that collect information about your browsing activities over time and across different websites following your use of the Services. Do Not Track ("DNT") is an optional browser setting that allows you to express your preferences regarding tracking across websites. Outside of certain opt-out preference settings within the browser used to access our Websites such as the Global Privacy Control noted in the state-specific addendums, we currently do not respond to DNT signals and we may continue to collect information in the manner described in this Privacy Policy from web browsers that have enabled DNT signals or similar mechanisms.

8. Your rights and choices

As part of the Services and other processing described in this Privacy Policy, we recognize that you may want to update, correct or otherwise manage your personal information that we process as well as manage how we communicate with you. This includes communications relevant to the Services or fulfilling a particular interaction with you as well as marketing communications where we have your consent or as otherwise permitted under the applicable law. Depending on the nature of your relationship with us, we may provide you with the capability to manage your personal information directly as part of the Services or by contacting us.

Managing your information

We want to ensure that you have the necessary tools at your disposal to manage your personal information. We rely on you to ensure that your information is accurate, complete and up to date and ask that you notify us of any changes to your personal information. Your ability to update and manage your personal information will differ depending on your relationship with us and what Services you use. For example,

- As a Merchant, for certain services, you may access, change or correct certain account information at any time by logging into your account. In other instances, please contact our customer success team.
- As a Merchant Employee using the Payroll and Team Management module or other Merchant Employee-facing Services, you have the ability in many cases to access and update your information through the Services. In other instances, please reach out to your Merchant Employer.

- As a Guest, depending on the Services you use, you may be able to access, change and update your information through an account created as part of the Services.

In other instances, if applicable, see the instructions provided as part of the Services or contact us as described in the “How to contact us” section of this Privacy Policy. We may need to verify your identity before changing or correcting your information. In certain instances, we may not be able to make the correction or accommodate the request due to legal, contractual or technical restrictions.

Please note that depending on your status, location and applicable law, you may be entitled to additional information rights in relation to the processing of your personal information. For more information regarding these rights, and the locations/circumstances where these rights are available, please see the applicable addendums in this Privacy Policy.

Managing communications

As part of providing the Services, we (whether directly or through a third-party service provider), may send you:

- Marketing communications: Depending on the nature of our relationship and the Services being used, we may send you marketing and other promotional communications for new or existing Services that we think you might be interested in. These marketing communications may include marketing text messages if you have opted in to receiving them. You can opt out of or unsubscribe from any marketing communications by following the instructions in those messages, by changing your communications preferences within your account or through your device. You can also opt out by contacting us at support@getfoxpay.com. Opting out of one communication will not necessarily opt you out of all marketing communications. Please note that you may still receive certain non-marketing communications after opting out. These messages may include transaction-specific communications, messages as part of a loyalty program or account-specific communications.

In certain cases, our Merchants (including those within a Merchant’s management group) may also send you marketing and promotional communications as part of the Services, including when you join a Merchant-specific loyalty program. In these instances, please follow the instructions within those messages to opt out or reach out to the Merchant directly.

- Other communications: As part of your interaction with our Services, you may receive various non-marketing communications that may be sent via email or text message. These include:

For Guests:

- sending you digital receipts or other messages in relation to Services you engage with;
- notifications sent by Merchants, our business partners and/or third-party service providers as part of our Services, such as order status, delivery or pick up notifications and information pertaining to our reservation and waitlist services;
- responding to feedback that you have provided;
- account or program-specific messages as part of your use of the Services (e.g., loyalty accounts with our Merchants); or
- messages associated with contests, competitions or promotions that you have elected to participate in.

For Merchants and Merchant Employees:

- messages relating to our services and demo requests (for prospective Merchants);
- on-boarding related messages pertaining to setting up the Services; or
- messages pertaining to Services that you are using or are under your account.

In certain cases, depending on the nature of your relationship with us and the Services being used, you may also receive messages from third-party service providers and business partners.

For additional information about how we communicate with you, please contact us at support@getfoxpay.com

9. Security. We implement appropriate administrative, physical and technical security measures to reasonably protect your personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, damage or loss. However, even though we have taken measures to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee that the collection, transmission and storage of personal information will always be completely secure.

10. Links to other websites. This Privacy Policy only applies to information collected when visiting our Websites or otherwise using our Services. While visiting our Websites or using the Services, you may be directed through links to third-party websites or services that are not operated or controlled by us. For example, the websites of our Merchants or business partners that provide services as part of this Privacy Policy. We are not responsible for the privacy practices and policies of these third parties. As a result, we encourage you to review the privacy policies of these third-party websites as their practices may differ from ours.

11. Children. Our Services are not targeted or directed at children under the age of 13, and we do not intend to, or knowingly, collect or solicit personal information from children under the age of 13. If you have reason to believe that a child under the age of 13 has provided personal information to us, we encourage the child's parent or guardian to contact us as described in the "How to Contact Us" section of this Privacy Policy to request that we remove the information from our systems. If we learn that any personal information we collected has been provided by a child under the age of 13, we will promptly delete that personal information.

We do, however, process personal information about children when it is necessary for the services we are offering, and you provide it to us. For example, if you are a Merchant Employee, we may collect information relating to children if your employer is using the Payroll and Team Management module and you add them as dependents under your benefits policies.

12. How to contact us

If you have questions or concerns about our Privacy Policy, our practices or our compliance with applicable privacy laws, you can reach us at:

- By email: support@getfoxpay.com
- By mail: Enhanced Foods, LLC 1000 NW 1st Ave Ste 23 Boca Raton, FL 33432

13. Changes to this Privacy Policy. From time to time, we may update, change, modify or amend this Privacy Policy in order to comply with the applicable law or our changing business practices. Unless we are required by the applicable law to provide a prescribed form of notice and/or obtain consent, updated versions of this Privacy Policy may be posted on this website with additional communication. Please check this website and this Privacy Policy regularly for updates.

1. Privacy Policy for residents of California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, or Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oregon, Texas, Utah, and Virginia (the "States").

The provisions below supplement the information provided in the generally applicable portion of our Privacy Policy and apply solely to individuals that are residents of the States and qualify as a “Consumer”, or equivalent term under the Applicable state law respectively. This State-specific Privacy Policy provides additional information about how we collect, use, disclose and otherwise process the personal information of these individuals, either online or offline, within the scope of the Applicable state law. Any terms defined in the Applicable state law or as otherwise defined in our Privacy Policy have the same meaning as used in this Addendum.

When we use the term “personal information” in this Addendum, we mean “personal data”, and equivalent terms used the Applicable state law, including information that is linked or reasonably linkable to an identified or identifiable natural person.

A. Categories of personal information processed

Please refer to the “Personal information we collect” section in the main body of the Privacy Policy.

In addition, we may collect “sensitive data” as defined by Applicable state law (including the TDPSA) as part of our operations and the Services offered to our Merchants. The following categories of data may be collected from Guests: -Personal data revealing mental or physical health diagnosis, to the extent that allergy and dietary restrictions are capable of revealing a mental or physical health diagnosis (“Health data”)

-Precise geolocation data

B. Purposes of processing the personal information

Please refer to the “How we use personal information” section in the main body of the Privacy Policy. In addition, we may collect “sensitive data” as defined by the Applicable state law (including the TDPSA) for the following purposes

-Health data: a Guest may voluntarily elect to provide this as part of a reservation or their dining experience in the “additional information” section or other free form fields

-Precise geolocation data: needed for certain digital ordering services and as part of the Services requested by a Guest or with the consent of the individual

C. Categories of information disclosed to third parties and a description of those third parties

Please refer to the “How we share personal information” section in the main body of the Privacy Policy. With respect to sensitive data, we may share precise geolocation data with partners and/or service providers in order to support certain digital ordering services and as part of the Services requested by a Guest, or with the consent of the individual.

D. Categories of third parties with which we share personal information

Please refer to the “How we share personal information” section in the main body of the Privacy Policy.

E. Description of rights available to consumers

A number of individual rights are available to individuals under the Applicable state law relating to personal information that we have collected (subject to certain limitations), depending on your State of residence may include:

- The right to access: you have the right to confirm whether a controller is processing your personal information and to access such information.
- The right to correction: you have the right to correct inaccuracies in your personal information, taking into account the nature of the personal information and purposes of the processing.
- The right to deletion: you have the right to delete your personal information you have provided or that has been collected.

- The right to obtain a portable copy of your personal information: you have the right to obtain a copy of your personal information that was previously provided in a portable, and to the extent technically feasible, readily usable format that can be transmitted to another entity.
- The right to opt out: you have the right to opt out of (as defined by the Applicable state law) (i) targeted advertising, (ii) the sale of personal information and (iii) profiling in furtherance of solely automated decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects.
- For residents of Delaware & Oregon:
The right to be informed of third party disclosures: you have the right to obtain a list of specific third parties, other than natural persons, to which we have disclosed personal information.

F. How to invoke your rights

Individual rights requests can be submitted to us through the below channels:

- By email: support@getfoxpay.com
- By mail: Enhanced Foods, LLC 1000 NW 1st Ave Ste 23 Boca Raton, FL 33432

Once an individual rights request has been submitted, we may ask you for additional information in order to verify your identity or to provide additional details to help us respond to your request. This may include your name, email address, phone number or other details related to your use of our Services. Where applicable, these requests can be submitted by an authorized agent through the channels described above in accordance with the applicable law. These include requests made on behalf of a minor by the individual's parent or legal guardian can also be made via the individual rights portal above. In these cases, in order to verify the authorized agent's authority, we generally require evidence of that individual's authority to act on behalf of the individual. All individual rights requests will be managed in line with the requirements set out in the Applicable state law.

Please note that in certain circumstances, we may refuse to act or impose limitations on your rights, as permitted by the applicable law. In the event we decline to take action on a request, we will notify you within the relevant statutory period (typically between 30-90 days from receipt of the original request with our justification for declining to take action and how you may appeal that decision (including an overview of the appeals process and how you can initiate an appeal). All appeal requests should be submitted by emailing us with the subject line, "<your state name> Privacy Request Appeal".

G. Sale of personal information

In certain instances, transfers of data by us to third parties may constitute 'selling'/'sales' or sharing personal information as defined under Applicable state law. The purpose of such transfers are to display targeted advertisements which may be selected based on personal information obtained or inferred over time from an individual's activities, for personalization features and for tracking and analytics purposes.

Consumers can exercise their right to opt out of these sales by submitting a request via one of the methods described in Section F above. You can also opt out of the "sale" of personal information or "sharing" for targeted advertising purposes by enabling the Global Privacy Control or a similar opt-out preference setting within the browser you use to access our Websites. Please note that your opt out will be specific to the device and browser you use when you opt out, and our Websites will recognize opt-out preference settings only on domains of our Websites where any “selling” or “sharing” occurs. You may also review our Privacy Policy section titled “Cookies and other tracking technologies” for more information on how we use cookies, analytics and personalized advertising.

H. Profiling

Presently, we do not carry out any profiling (as defined by the Applicable state law) in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning consumers that are presently in scope for Applicable state law purposes.

I. Deidentified information

We may at times receive, or process personal information to create, deidentified information that can no longer reasonably be used to infer information about, or otherwise be linked to, a particular individual. Where we maintain deidentified information, we will maintain and use the information in deidentified form and not attempt to reidentify the information except as required or permitted by law.

J. Updates to this Privacy Policy

We will update this Privacy Policy from time to time. When we make changes to this Privacy Policy, we will change the "Last updated" date at the beginning of this Privacy Policy. All changes shall be effective from the date of publication unless otherwise provided in the notification.
